(Approved by the Delayed Bills Committee)

A concurrent resolution urging Congress not to support legislation, or other efforts, relating to the adoption of a Central Bank Digital Currency in the United States.

WHEREAS, on March 9, 2022, President Joseph R. Biden issued Executive Order 14067, Ensuring Responsible Development of Digital Assets, establishing a broad interagency effort to study and develop a United States Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC); and

WHEREAS, Executive Order 14067 established an interagency effort to develop "Policy and Actions Related to United States Central Bank Digital Currencies"; and

WHEREAS, Executive Order 14067 states "the term 'central bank digital currency' or 'CBDC' refers to a form of digital money or monetary value, denomination in the national unit of account, that is a direct liability of the central bank"; and

WHEREAS, Executive Order 14067 requires the Attorney General, together with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Chairman of the Federal Reserve, provide the President a legislative proposal for a CBDC within 210 days of the executive order; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Reserve Bank of New York and 10 financial institutions completed testing of certain features related to a CBDC in 2022; and
